NAGEL TO SUCCEED MOODY, IS REPORT

Speculation in Capital Over Supreme Court Vacancy.

With President Taft's ante-Congress Cabinet meeting only about ten days off. official Washington is full of speculation as to whom he will name to succeed Associate Justice William H. Moody of the Supreme Court when Mr. Moody resigns. The latest gossip, and it is founded on some knowledge of the President's mind, is that Charles Nagel, Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor, is being seriously considered for this place. Mr. Nagel is regarded by the President as one of the ablest lawyers in the coun-

He comes from the Eighth judicial circuit, and the President has desired to appoint a man, if possible, from that locality. Lloyd W. Bowers, Solicitor General of the United States, who died in Boston Saturday, and who was slated for a Supreme Court vacancy, was from the Eighth circuit.

It was reported last night also that since the death of Mr. Bowers there is no question that President Taft intends to appoint Governor Hughes, of New York, as Chief Justice, to succeed the late Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller.
